Flashlight Night

Basic Overview:

Flashlight Night is the same as every other night, except that it is done with the lights off! Children are all encouraged to say their verses, play in game time, and listen to the lesson with only their flashlights on for light. It is best to do this night in the fall before daylight savings occurs. Encourage the children to bring a flashlight and one for a friend.

Always explain that misbehavior with the flashlights will result in the lights being turned on and the flashlights put away. As the kids enter the room for opening time have the lights on. Then as you begin the night (approximately halfway through opening time) make an announcement and turn off the lights.

Additional Ideas:

There are a number of ways to incorporate flashlights into your night. In game time, the games can be played using only flashlights. You can also put flashlights under cones or facing upward in cups to serve as cones to run around in relay races. During book time, the kids use their lights to study verses and during lesson time, have everyone sit in a circle on the floor and set their flashlights on the floor pointed toward the teachers lesson.
