

Remember, next week is...

Twas the last night of Expeditions,
before Christmas break...
The children were zooming all over like tiny snowflakes...
A whole night of Christmas was just about to begin...
filled with Christmas games, questions,
and a special lesson...
So we'll see you next week
it will be quite a sight...
Come join us this year
on our merry little Christmas night!
