Wear Wars Night – Hats and Shoes

Basic Overview:

Wear Wars Night is a fun night in which a couple of fun nights are combined into one. Kids will be instructed to choose from a list of two possible fun nights and must come dressed and ready for only one of those. In opening time, there are two ways that you can choose which fun night won. (1.) You can put the names of both fun nights into a hat and draw one of them out. Then you can announce who guessed correctly and count up those children. (2.) You can also create a list of ten items. Numbers 1, 2, 4, 7, and 8 have Fun Night A next to them, while numbers 3, 5, 6, 9, and 10 have Fun Night B next to them. Then have a leader or child pick a number between 1 and 10 and announce the winner. The fun nights we recommend using for this night are combined in the flyer below. These specific nights were chosen because there is no overlap where the kids could dress up for both in attempt to get credit for both) Emphasize that the kids must choose only one of these nights to dress up for or they do not get any credit.

Here is what is considered being “dressed up” for the fun nights included on this flyer: Crazy Hat Night - wear a hat of any kind. The crazier...the better! Shoe Switcheroo Night - wear two different shoes. No cleats are allowed to be worn.

There are a couple of ways that you can award points for the kids for participating in the night: (1.) You can draw one fun night out of the hat and give a point or prize to every child who guessed correctly. (2.) You could also give two points to each person who guessed correctly and 1 point to everyone who dressed up at all for the night.
