

FUN NIGHT IDEAS

Ship Shape Night

Basic Overview:

This fun night is designed to get the kids to complete a bunch of checkpoints from their books. Each classroom will be given two game cards with a total of 70 shipping boxes on them at the beginning of book time (see the game cards below). Each time a child completes a checkpoint in their book, they get to pick one box on the game card and have their leader write their initials on the side of that box. Because there are two game cards, two different leaders can each be holding one card in different spots in the classroom during book time.

It is important to have all the boxes on the game cards filled in with someone's initials so that each classroom has a winner. If you have several boxes still unclaimed at the end of book time, go around the room and allow each child to pick another box to put their initials on. You can do this as many times as is needed to fill up all the boxes on the game cards. Let's say you do this a couple of times and still have 4 boxes open and have 10 kids in your class. In this case, you can allow the four kids who completed the most pages that night to pick one additional box, draw names out of a hat, or choose four who listened to the lesson best and put their initials on the boxes.

At the end of the night or in opening time the following week, you will choose one box number of the game cards (numbers are in the corner of each box) and figure out which child in each classroom chose that box. Bring everyone into the same room and read off the names of the winners. The child in each classroom who chose the right box will get to come up and pick a prize from the front.

Additional Ideas:

Instead of for completing verses, this night can also work well with you missionary participation lessons. Each item that the kids bring in for your missionary (such as a letter for the missionary, a signed sheet saying they prayed for the missionary, or offering for the missionary) allows them to put their initials on the outside of one box. This will help to increase participation in support for your missionary!

Remember, next week is ...

SHIP SHAPE NIGHT

We've got a few more things to send to our missionaries, but which box is the one that is being sent to them? Come ready to get as many pages as you can signed off in your book. The more that you complete the better chance you have of figuring out which box is the right one!
